JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

GRANT AND DENT.

We are inclined to think that we have drawn the wrong brother in-law in the lottery. The letter written by Judge Dent to President Grant, on the subject of the President's interference in the Mississippi elections, does not, perhaps, prove that Judge Dent is the proper person to be Governor of Mississippi, but it certainly does prove that he is a much fitter person than Gen. Grant to be President of the United States. Of course, between either Judge Dent or Gen. Grant and the person really fit to be President of the United States there is a great gulf. We are speaking of the brother-in-law merely in relation to each other and to those unhappy circumstances of our times which make it necessary that any one should speak of either of them. Judge Dent probably has no more delicacy of feeling as to the proprieties of Presidential life than his brother-in-law. Otherwise, he would hardly have accepted a nomination to the post of Governor of Mississippi, which, as all the world knows, was tendered to him solely on the ground of his being the brother-in-law of Gen. Grant, elected President of the free States of the Union, but by the brute will and brute force of those States appointed Dictator of the enslaved States of the Union. This action of Judge Dent compels us to put him in the same category with his brother-in-law in respect to sensitiveness and dignity. Of course, it may be pleaded for him that he honestly desired to see a down-trodden people delivered from insult and oppression, and that, supposing his own family connection with the official head of the nation would enable him to hasten their deliverance, he swallowed the scruples which he certainly has never expressed, yet which every right-minded man would be sure to feel. Be this as it may, however, Judge Dent's letter, just published, quite takes him out of the same category with General Grant in respect to common sense and sound political feeling. His remonstrance against the interference of the President in behalf of the Radical tormentors of Mississippi is as creditable both to his intelligence and his humanity (in the noblest sense of that much abused word) as the interference he protests against is discreditable both to the intelligence and the humanity of the President. His exposition of the true relations between the genuine people of Mississippi and the Radical pests whom President Grant is now endeavoring to fasten still more firmly upon them, deserves to be scattered broadcast throughout the country. It explains the true force of Conservative victory in Virginia and Tennessee as clearly as it unveils the true nature of the crusade to which President Grant has now lent himself in Mississippi and in Texas. The truths which it tells are familiar, indeed, to all Democrats, but it is of importance to have them told by a man who has obviously been foolish enough to suppose that he could be a Republican without being a Radical, and a Radical without trampling not only on all constitutional law, but on the intrinsic rights of men and the first principles of successful free government.

"Is it reasonable," Judge Dent asks of his Presidential brother-in-law—

Is it reasonable to suppose that a people, having the free choice of their representatives would elect for their rulers a class of politicians whose aggressive and hostile conduct hitherto, has rendered them peculiarly obnoxious and disagreeable? This is the charge made by the people of Mississippi against the Radicals, or "butter enders," as they are called. This charge is not made because they fought against the South and secession, for many of that class, fought on the side of the South. It is not made because they are of Northern birth and education, for many men of Northern birth and education, and of the Northern army, are with us in antagonism to this obnoxious party. It is not because they are Republicans, for their antagonists were among the first in the South to organize on the Republican platform, and to advocate the civil and political equality of all men; were sent as delegates to Chicago, and for their consistency and constancy were rewarded by you with offices of trust and honor. But this charge is made, as I have said before, because the proscriptive antecedents and aggressive policy of these politicians towards the people of Mississippi have made them the objects of peculiar abhorrence. That policy consists not only in the continual advocacy of proscription, but in preaching to the freedmen, in a time of profound peace, such revolutionary doctrines as excite and direct against the white men of the South and their families a most dangerous animosity—such animosity, indeed, as, with a continuation of the same fuel, would inevitably lead to a black man's party and a war of races. Neither are such doctrines preached with an honest desire to ameliorate the condition of the freedmen, or promote the ends of peace or strengthen the Republican party in the South, but solely to alienate from the planter the time honored confidence and affection of this race, in order that the new political element, under the banner of Republicanism, might be entirely controlled and subordinated to their own purposes of power and aggrandizement. And to this class of men, whom you foiled in their attempt to force upon the people of Mississippi the odious constitution rejected at the ballot-box, you now give the hand of friendship and support, and spurn from you that other class who, accepting the invitation of the Republican party in good faith, come in mass in Virginia and Tennessee, as they will come in Mississippi and Texas, to stand upon its platform and advocate its principles.

This letter, we have said, justifies a doubt whether Judge Dent would not have been a better—it certainly makes it clear that he would have been a less deplorably bad President of the United States than his brother-in-law. In doing this it also incidentally makes a new revelation of the profound weakness, the absolute lack of all policy, principle, and purpose, which make the case of President Grant so hopeless. It is obvious that Dent originally united, and had a right to count, upon the support of his brother in law.

It would have been easy for President Grant to make him a door-keeper, like the other Dent, or a Consul General, or a Collector—to give him some post quite independent of popular opinion and the public will. But Judge Dent apparently aimed higher, and when he communicated his wishes to Grant he no doubt found that personage quite willing to promise him his support in a Mississippi canvass, to be conducted on a "Conservative" basis. No sooner, however, had Virginia and Tennessee shaken off their oppressors than Boutwell and the other Radical masters of the President took the alarm, and commanded him to give them the control of the administration machinery for the purpose of preventing a like result in Mississippi and Texas. Destitute of any settled notions on the subject and of any real interest in it, and impatient only to get away from Washington and the worry of doing his executive duties to the delights of Long Branch and the harmless dissipations of an aimless perambulation, the President threw the reins to the keepers of his political conscience, and left Dent to destiny. He is as ready to leave the country to destiny as Dent. Happily, we have a larger faith in the fortunes of the republic than Dent seems to have in his own fortune.

JAPANESE LADIES IN THE BATH.

A correspondent of the World writes:

We left the main street and turned into a narrow street which intersected it, for the purpose of visiting a native bath house. Here, open to the street, as usual, we found the place to be a large square room, with the floor raised about two feet from the ground, and a partition about three feet high running through the centre. On one side of this room, in the costume of Mother Eve before she studied pomology, were collected from fifty to seventy women and girls, on the other side perhaps thirty men and boys clad in a curtailed pattern of the famous Georgia major's airy suit, but that even the shirt collar and spurs were wanting. The old joke about a "wet nurse in a bath house" was here practically realized. Some dozen native dryads, whom I took to be the owners of the lavatory temple, were scouring the dark haired, rosy naiads with large bunches of paper, while others poured water over them from a well in the centre of the room, by means of wooden dippers with long handles. The ceaseless din and chattering of the nymphs under this process was absolutely deafening. Far from feeling any sense of shame by the presence of their own countrymen, who were enjoying the bath in company, they gave not the slightest thought or attention to the number of foreigners who were looking on.—Perhaps, like the poet's chivalrous defence of Lady Godiva, I ought to say that they were clothed in unconsciousness of immodesty, it being a custom to which they are habituated from infancy.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE CUSHIONS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Ouyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater account of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infants Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9 and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 20, 1869.

SUFFRAGE AND AMESTY.

The Radical organ of this City, in its issue of Wednesday morning, has an article under the caption of "Universal Suffrage and Universal Amnesty," in which some one of the editors of that paper takes ground for "general amnesty," as understood in Virginia, Tennessee and Mississippi, that is, the removal of all disabilities heretofore imposed by the reconstruction acts. "Away with test-oaths, proscription and other measures which belong to a time of war," says the Standard. This is the first time, in the present or recent division of parties in North Carolina, that that paper has come out openly, and unconditionally, in so many words, for a policy so liberal. It has been creeping up to the point ever since the Virginia elections; sometimes it was for universal amnesty, but that sort of amnesty only which "spared the necks of rebels;" sometimes for the removal of disabilities from "those who asked it"—always for the thing with a reservation or condition. In the article above alluded to, however, it seems, for once to make an honest, straightout declaration against all proscription—that Congress should pass, what it has failed or refused to do heretofore, by the necessary majority, a bill removing all disabilities from everybody in the South, and placing every man on the same footing as to political privileges. That is what we understand from the article, to be the present position of the Standard.

That the former teachings of the Standard on this subject has been quite the reverse of this, is patent to all who have been its readers. It has opposed every movement in the Legislature having for its object the removal of disabilities from those proscribed in this State; and has endorsed proscription, in that it has steadily supported Congress, while Congress, it is well known, could have removed disabilities from those proscribed by the reconstruction acts, but which it failed, or rather, positively refused to do. Thus, by direct and indirect, but logical, argument, it is shown the Standard has uniformly opposed "general amnesty," as embracing the removal of political disabilities, up to the issue of Wednesday.

But the Standard is simply a bell, that jingles as the cord is pulled; Governor Holden holds the cord, and it is well known that he, through the Radical Committee that visited Washington prior to the assembling of the Legislature elected under the new Constitution, opposed and prevented the removal of disabilities from all members elect to that body, except those of the Radical party. The Governor having indulged his malignity and exercised his revenge as far as it is safe to do, in his own opinion, has now touched the cord and the little bell sends forth a liberal jingle—a tone in favor of the removal of all disabilities. The Governor is notoriously short-sighted, especially when his own political prospects are in question, and in this he has not been more felicitous than in many cases in the past, for he has pushed the thing rather too far to return to moderate measures and receive credit for his liberality. The people will not believe him, because he did not turn until "the stern logic of events forced him to do it."

But the Standard is not the Radical party of North Carolina, and although it may now array itself on the side of liberal measures in regard to the amnesty question, the party in this State, at least the leaders of the party, stand committed to proscription by the action of the legislature, and by the influence of Conventions and public meetings, and we have yet seen no evidence that they have changed in their views, or that they would not be as malignantly proscriptive to-morrow, as they have been in the past, if the present political revolution, which has recently manifested itself in Virginia, Tennessee and elsewhere, did not put it out of their power. The ten or fifteen thousand men in North Carolina, who have been kept under the foot of the proscriptive Republican party in Congress, under the advise and at the instigation of the leaders of the Radical party here, cannot forget for a time, if they ever do, the indignity and degradation that has been put upon them, while meaner men—peripatetic scoundrels from every direction, have been placed in positions to lord it over them, insult and rob them, and then, upon the least show of resistance, to cry out "rebel" and traitor." No words in the English language are sufficiently expressive to show forth the feelings of this large class of our oppressed and insulted citizens towards those who have been the instruments and instigators of the oppression and insult. Hatred, loathing, contempt, are terms too tame for the purpose. And however conciliatory the party may become, these men—the leaders, will be remembered in North Carolina.

We hail with pleasure the apparent return of better feelings and better times; but we cannot so stultify ourself, or so insult the feelings and rights of those who have been the peculiar objects of Radical malignity in North Carolina, as to be willing to take these men into our arms and bosoms, who have been instigators and abettors of the wrongs that have been inflicted.

We understand further, from the article in the Standard, that that paper places itself in the ranks of opposition to the administration and Congress, for both, from all the lights now before us, are opposed to the liberal policy adopted in Tennessee, Mississippi and Texas, which policy is now endorsed by the Standard.

Judge Cantwell, Late Governor of Norfolk, a Trusty Medium through whom Affairs of Honor may be honorably adjusted without Bloodshed!

A Carpet-Bag Hero Unmasked!

THE LION SKIN STRIPPED OFF AND THE ASS EXPOSED!!

We shall make no apology for laying before our readers the full correspondence between Major Engelhard and J. C. Abbott, the creature who "signs himself" Senator from North Carolina. It is the most remarkable correspondence on record. It shows to what peril the lives, fortunes, character and property of the whole people of the South are exposed, when such men as Abbott speak in the Senate of the nation for the State of North Carolina. Yet, with Holden, John Pool and Cantwell, this correspondence will make Abbott neither ridiculous or contemptible.

We now understand why it was that the carpet-baggers, like Abbott, in the Legislature, passed such stringent laws against dueling; why it was that an act at the last session was passed, making it a Penitentiary offence to use a deadly weapon.

For the better understanding of Abbott's conduct, it is necessary to know, and remember, that he is the owner and proprietor of the Post, of which one C. L. Grady is Editor.

Ten days ago, that paper contained an editorial vilely abusive of Major Engelhard, of the Journal—charging him especially with cowardice. Mr. J. C. James, Local of the Journal, meeting with Grady, engaged him on sight, in a fair fist fight, and gave him a bruising, only a little short of that which "my son Joe" received from the peaceable mercantile mauler.

Abbott, with the justice and magnanimity becoming a Senator, writes Major Engelhard a note, avowing himself the author of the offensive editorial. Such justice and magnanimity was the subject of admiration for the whole city. It was received by the whole party with joy, triumph and satisfaction.

Judge Cantwell applauded it. Galloway, the colored Senator, applauded it.—The dray drivers and negroes all applauded it, as worthy of a Federal General and Senator, who had "fought for the flag;" but, alas, Abbott is made to repent himself of his magnanimity, as is shown by the correspondence.

We think it due to the Judiciary of the State that Judge Cantwell, in a card, should purge himself of the dishonor which attaches to being the bearer of such notes as Abbott wrote to Major Engelhard. If there is any other native of the State, except Gov. Holden and the Attorney General Coleman, who would have borne such a note we should like to know him. Who will Abbott next charge with cowardice?

A MODEL SCALLAWAG M. C.

Congressman Bowen is branded by Alderman Mackey, the president of the Union League of this city, as a thief, forger and murderer, and we print these charges that the Republicans of the North may read and judge for themselves. As a member of the United States House of Representatives, Congressman Bowen has a voice in making laws for Illinois, and Ohio, and Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania, as well as for the States of the South. It is proper that the whole country should know the character of the men who control the destinies of the nation, and it is proper that every honest citizen, whether Republican or Democrat, should know who and what are the men who, while "representing" the South, hold the balance of power between the East and West.

The charge brought against Congressman Bowen by Alderman Mackey are as follows:

1. That C. C. Bowen stole a valuable set of faro checks from a gambler in this city, which checks were sold by Bowen in New York, where they were identified and ultimately recovered by the owner.

2. That C. C. Bowen was imprisoned in Castle Pinckney in 1867, by Governor Scott, then Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, on the charge of misappropriating the funds of the Union League.

3. That C. C. Bowen, then Captain of the 21st Battalion Georgia Cavalry, was tried by court martial, found guilty and cashiered for forging pay rolls, the result being announced in general orders from General Beauregard's headquarters.

4. That C. C. Bowen was arrested upon the charge of having planned the murder of Colonel White, at Georgetown, S. C., in November, 1864, that he escaped punishment by the flight of his accomplice, and was released from jail when the Federal troops took possession of Charleston in 1865. —Charleston Courier.

Prince Arthur, Queen Victoria's third son left England on Saturday for Halifax, Nova Scotia, on a tour through the New Dominion. He is to proceed from Nova Scotia to New Brunswick; thence he will go to Canada, and from Canada it is expected he will come on to the United States. Some attention will, of course, be proper to the young gentleman, but what a chance there will be for republican flunkeys to show their admiration of royalty on the occasion.

In a recent seizure of a champagne making establishment in New York the articles found on hand were four barrels of common white wine, one barrel of molasses and one barrel of vitriol.

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN GEN. ABBOTT AND J. A. ENGELHARD, ESQ.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 17, 1869.

We submit the following as a complete record of the transaction as explained by the letters and "note" published below.

R. RANSOM,
GEO. Z FRENCH.

[Received 10, P. M., the 10th.]

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 10th, 1869.

J. A. Engelhard, Esq., Editor of the Journal:

SIR:—I think it is proper to inform you that I am the writer of the article in the Wilmington Post, entitled "Misrepresentations of our Public Men—Senator Abbott."

NOTE.—A verbal message was received by Maj. Engelhard from Gen. Abbott, stating that under no earthly consideration would he fight a duel.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

August 13th, 1869.

SIR:—Since your note to me announcing yourself the author of an offensive article which appeared in the Wilmington Post of Sunday last, I have made every effort in my power, publicly and privately, to meet with you for the purpose of obtaining the satisfaction which I regard as due. You have prevented this by remaining in your office and home, or on the few occasions when on the street you were so flanked by the officers of the law that I was unable to chastise you as I designed.

I have learned that within the last twenty-four hours you have been bound over under bond to keep the peace. How far you were a party to this transaction I do not now propose to consider. If any hostile meeting should take place between us, I am authorized by several responsible gentlemen of Wilmington to say that arrangements have been made to deposit the amount of the bond in the Banking House of James Dawson, subject to its legal enforcement.

Under these circumstances my object now is to inquire whether you will accept a challenge from me?

I am, sir, &c.,
JOS. A. ENGELHARD.

To Gen. JOSEPH C. ABBOTT,
Wilmington, N. C.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 14, 1869.

F. W. Kerchner, Esq:

SIR:—The communication presented to me by you, yesterday, I decline to receive, on account of its offensive character, and I herewith return it. It contains insinuations and reflections which one gentleman should not address to another.

Whenever the writer of the letter mentioned chooses to address to me a civil communication it will receive prompt attention.

Until that time I decline any intercourse with him.

I am, Sir,
Very Respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

WILMINGTON, Aug. 14, '69, 4 o'clock, P. M.

SIR:—In reply to your note of this morning, to Mr. Kerchner, in which you object to the language of my communication of yesterday, I have to say that my only object in addressing you that communication, as well as the present one, was to ascertain whether you would accept a challenge if one should be sent by me. I, therefore, withdraw the communication of yesterday, and, without further comment, put the question direct, would you accept a challenge coming from me. An immediate answer is respectfully requested.

I am, Sir,
Very Respectfully,
JOS A. ENGELHARD.

To General J. C. Abbott, Present.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 14, 1869—8½ P. M.

Major Jos. A. Engelhard:

SIR:—I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this date requesting to be informed whether, if challenged by you, I would accept. In reply I have to say that in case I should receive a challenge from you, I will take the matter into consideration and forward to you an early answer.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

SOUTH CAROLINA, August 15th, 1869.

SIR: In reply to your last communication, I have to say that the inference to be drawn therefrom is that if challenged you will accept. You have already informed me that you are the author of the insulting article which appeared in the Wilmington Post of the 8th of August. You must now make a full retraction of the contents of that article and an apology for publishing it, or give me the satisfaction to which I am entitled in accordance with the Code of Honor.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,
JOS. A. ENGELHARD.

To Gen'l. J. C. ABBOTT, Wilmington, N. C.

[Received 1 P. M., 16th Aug.]

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 16, 1869.

Maj. J. A. Engelhard:

SIR:—I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your note of last evening in which you demand a retraction and an apology for the language used by me in the Post of Aug. 8, and intimate that unless I make a retraction and apology you will send me a challenge. The language of your note is such that I at last have an opportunity to state my position in this controversy.

For more than a year I have been almost constantly assailed in my private character and in matters affecting my private character in the columns of the newspaper for which you are responsible. I object to no discussion or criticism of my public acts; but those assaults to which I allude have been personal and calculated to affect injuriously my character and standing among men.

Coupled with these attacks on my character have been constant misrepresentations of me in public matters. Examples of all these I could easily adduce from your columns, but that is needless, as they are doubtless as fresh in your mind as in mine. These attacks and slanders, and allusions tending to disgrace me, finally became insupportable, inconsistent with self-respect, and I determined to put a stop to them if possible. I wrote the article in the Post of Aug. 8th, as initiatory to redress. The language of the article was, it is true, strong, and transcended the ordinary rules of courteous speech. But the provocation had been long-continued and great; and it more bluntly expressed, it struck no deeper in aspersions than much which you have published against me.

If I have insulted you, you also have as grievously insulted me, and your long-continued insults were begun and continued without the faintest shadow of provocation. Thus the case stands—I a victim of more than a year of unprovoked calumny, and you the target of one single shot. My attack was made after long-suffering and forbearance, and yours without provocation and cool blood.

Under these circumstances I have to say that I am ready for any amicable and honorable adjustment of these personal difficulties. Believing that I am equally aggrieved with yourself, I am ready to meet the question fairly and honorably and amicably, and concede where I am met by concession. I therefore say that I am prepared to make a satisfactory retraction and apology for my own language when I see any indication that I shall be afterwards met by a similar temper on your part, and I may add that I am quite indifferent as to the particular etiquette by which the proposed settlement is accomplished.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,
JOSEPH C. ABBOTT.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 16th, 1869.

Gen. Joseph C. Abbott:

SIR:—Your note of this date in reply to that of Major Engelhard of the 15th inst., which we had the honor to deliver is received.

We must express our surprise at your conception of the meaning of his note and the tenor of your reply. Concerding, however, that you have misconceived the intention of Major Engelhard, who is now absent from this city, as his acting friends we are instructed only to receive a categorical answer to the demands already made, to wit: that you retract the offensive portions of the article which appeared in the Wilmington Post of the 8th inst., the authorship of which you have assumed, and apologize for the same or give him that satisfaction which one gentleman can demand of another agreeably to the Code of Honor.

We have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your ob't servants,
R. RANSOM,
WM. MACRAE.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 16 h 1869.

To Gen. R. Ransom and Gen Wm. MacRae:

GENTLEMEN:—By authority of Gen'l Abbot, and being fully empowered by him, in his name we retract in full the article in the Post of the 8th inst., reflecting on Major Engelhard, and express regret that it was written and published.

We now, in justice, expect that Gen'l Abbot will be met in the same generous spirit, and that the reflections made upon his private character in the Journal will be retracted.

We are, gentlemen,
Very respectfully,
Your obd't serv'ts,
EDWARD CANTWELL,
GEO. Z FRENCH.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 16th, 1869.

To Judge Ed. Cantwell and G. Z. French, Esqr.:

GENTLEMEN:—Your note retracting for Gen'l Abbott the article in the Post of the 8th inst., is received, and we, acting for Major Engelhard, and by his authority, accept the amende.

In justice to both Gen'l Abbott and Maj. Engelhard, we state that anything which has appeared in the Journal has not been intended to assault the private character of General Abbott and it is regretted that it should have been so construed.

We are, gentlemen,
Very respectfully,
Your most obedient servants,
[Signed] R. RANSOM,
WM. MACRAE.

DISTILLING BRANDY.

The growers of fruit are in so much doubt and perplexity on the subject of making brandy, we have thought it proper to publish the law on the subject. Not having the law itself before us, we take from the circular, of a supervisor the following which is no doubt correct.

Such a law operates hard and harshly upon the people of the Western portion of the State who have small orchards and small stills and have hitherto relied upon them to raise money for the payment of their taxes.

The following rules are established for the guidance of officers and all persons proposing to distil brandy:

SUPERVISOR'S OFFICE,
Richmond, Aug. 1st 1869.

Section 2, Act of July 20, 1868, provides that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may exempt distillers of brandy from apples, peaches or grapes, exclusively, from certain requirements of the act relating to distillation of spirits. The following rules are established for the guidance of officers and all persons proposing to distil apple brandy.

1st. Every still must be registered on form 26 with the Assistant Assessor of the proper division.

2nd. Each person, before commencing distillation, must give notice, on form 27, of his intention to run; the number of stills proposed to be used; the capacity of each still in gallons; the size of the lot on which the distilling is to be carried on; the kind and character of the building; what kind of material or fruit is to be used: and an estimate of the gallons of brandy that can be produced in 24 hours.

3rd. A special tax of $37 50 from August 1st will be required of each distiller.

4th. A bond for not less than $5 000, to be approved by the Assessor, must be given in every case.

5th. A capacity tax of $2 per day must be paid by each distiller producing the 60 gallons or less each 24 hours.

6th. Each proof gallon of brandy, before being removed or consumed, must be inspected and guaged by a guager, who will mark on each package the number of proof gallons; the name of the distiller; the place, (town or county) where produced; the date of inspection and name of inspector; and also affix to each package a tax paid stamp, denoting the tax, at 50 cents per proof gallon. The distiller will be required to pay at least 80 per cent. on the reported producing capacity as fixed by the Surveyor.

7th. Assistant Assessors can be appointed as surveyors and guagers, with fees to be fixed by the Commissioner.

8th. Every distiller must give notice of the time of commencing, after which he will be charged with the per diem tax of $2 for each working day of 24 hours, until he he has mailed a written notice to the Assistant Assessor that he has ceased running his still or stills.

9th. At the end of each month the distiller must have all spirits made by him during the month gauged and inspected, each package shall have affixed thereon a tax-paid stamp, which must be purchased of the Collector, and must be affixed by the gauger, together with all the marks or brands required in paragraph 6 of these instructions. The distiller must also make a return at the end of each month to the Assistant Assessor, under oath, of the number of packages and gallons distilled during the month; the number of packages and gallons sold or removed, and to whom sold or delivered, with the residence of the purchaser or receiver of such spirits.

10. Brandy cannot be removed from the distillery premises without it has been guaged, and the taxes have been paid.

11th. All blanks forms and instructions in relation to distillation of brandy should be furnished by Assistant Assessors.

12th. Every distiller, before commencing, must have the Assistant Assessor make the survey required by section 10, Act of July 20, 1868.

13th. The capacity of the still will, in each case, be determined by actual measurement, by noting the number of gallons of water required to fill it.

14th. As a rule a 100 gallon still is held to have a producing capacity of 25 gallons of proof brandy in 24 hours, and will be charged in any event with 80 per cent, or 20 gallons—(tax $14) for each 24 hours a still supposed to be run. This estimate allows 20 per cent. for boiling, and is based on the assumption that only 80 gallons can be boiled in a still holding 100 gallons, and that the still can be run out seven times in 24 hours, and that a charge of low wines can be run in the same time as a charge of cider, and that 13 gallons of cider will produce one gallon of brandy.

15th. A still of 80 gallons will produce 8 10 as much as one of 100; one of 60 gallons 6 10 as much; one of 40 gallons 4 10 as much; and 80 per cent. with which the distiller will, in any case while running, be charged with will be 22½ gallons on an 80 gallon still; 17 gallons on a 60 gallon; 14 gallons on a 50 gallon; and 11 gallons on a 40 gallon still.

16th. If more than one still is used, the producing capacity must be found in each case in the same way, and the distiller must be charged with the full production, which in no case must be less than 80 per cent. of the producing capacity of each still used.

17th. Officers must be vigilant in enforcing these requirements in their respective districts and divisions.

18th. DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $2,675,999.48, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States,

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

No.	15,273	$ 5,000

"	22,304	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fulness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the Ætna Life, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 569 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 11,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—The North Carolina Minstrels gave their long promised concert, at Tucker Hall. We are sorry to say, that but a slim audience greeted them. They acquitted themselves well, both in instrumental and vocal music, and made a handsome appearance on the stage.

ELECTION IN BEAUFORT.—The Conservatives carried this county by 250 majority, and every Township except Washington. Judge Rodman being present, the negroes, with his aid, carried this Township by sixteen majority.

Now that the eclipse is passed and the election over, and there is neither scientific or political excitement to agitate the public mind, our neighbor, James-Pontleroy, seems to be lying perdue, resting on the laurels won in the Senatorial campaign, and the eclipse agitation. We remember, particularly, his stirring appeals at the Court House, just before the election in favor of his friend, Gen. Phil. By the way, James-Pontleroy was in the city on election day—did he vote for his friend Phil? We do not recollect hearing of his having done so; indeed, it has been intimated, by some mischievously inclined persons, that he did not.—How is it?

SARATOGA WATER compares favorably with any mineral water in the world, and by many it is preferred.

In order that our citizens may enjoy its healthful and invigorating properties, Messrs. Pescud & Son keep it on draught, and as cool as ice can make it, and fresh supplies are received every few days direct from the Springs.

Elsewhere large crowds visit the Saratoga Fountains, before breakfast and tea, and those who drink it are greatly benefitted.

The health and vigor of fathers, mothers and children would be promoted if they would rise early and visit the Saratoga Fountain at Pescud & Son's Drug Store.

SHALL AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT.—J. L. Pennington, who used to pyscologize our craniums—afterwards became the fire eating secesh editor of the Newbern Progress, and dubbed by the Yanks, "John the Rascal," after the fall of Newbern; and still later, the half-and-half Radical editor of the Raleigh Progress; and who, after the war, carpet-bagged to Alabama and became terribly Rad in order to be elected State Senator, is now the President of the Eufaula and Opelika Railroad in that State. His old acquaintances here can somewhat imagine, but never up to the reality, how "John, the Rascal," swells and blows and stands with his legs wide apart, in his new position.

CUT DIRECT.—The Standard is in the habit of noticing the arrival in the City of every white scallawag and carpet bagger from a distance, even down to Windy Billy Hender on, but Booker Hutchings returns to the City from Washington, after months of absence, and because he is a colored man, the Standard does not deign to notice him any more than it he was a dog.

This is a cut as direct as that given by the Standard to Friday Jones, who made a talk at the Radical meeting at the Court House just before the election; although that paper alluded to the white speakers on the occasion, it never mentioned Friday at all.

SOME time ago we took occasion to call the attention of householders in certain localities, to the odors impregnating the atmosphere. This is caused by the filthy condition in which they allow their backyards to remain, and for health, if not decency sake, should be made to abate the nuisance. We trust the city authorities will at once take steps to enforce the law against the negligent.

THE GALAXY for September, 498 and 500, Broadway, N. Y., Sheldon & Co., contains a fund of interesting reading.

A Chinese place of worship is shortly to be erected in the city of New York, near Trinity church. A wealthy Chinese merchant of San Francisco has furnished the funds, with the hope of converting the New Yorkers (and especially, we suppose, the Ritualists) to the doctrines of Confucius.—There are some 10,000 Chinese in New York, and this is an additional motive for the erection of a temple to "Josh."

On the 29 h and 30th of last month much snow fell in various parts of France and northern Italy. On Mount Cenis it fell twenty inches deep, on Mount Genevre thirteen inches, and the suburbs of the town of Luse were covered with a layer three inches thick.

PENITENTIARY COMMISSION.

This body met in the Senate Chamber yesterday morning, according to adjournment. Messrs. Dockery, Welker, Lougee, Harrison, and Howe, (colored,) were present. Nothing, we learn, of importance was done, as the morning was spent in examining accounts for work already done, and discussing plans for the building to be erected.

L. T. Schofield, Esq., an architect from Ohio, is, we understand, in the city, having been summoned hither by the Commission for consultation in regard to the structure.

The Governor and the Superintendent of Public Works, C. L. Harris, Esq., were both present at the meeting.

The Commission adjourned to meet this morning, at 8 o'clock, at the same place.

AGAIN.—We must again notify correspondents that we cannot publish anonymous contributions, and, except in rare cases, correspodence that is written on both sides of the sheet.

THE JONES COUNTY MURDER.—We alluded yesterday to the assassination of Col. Shepard, of Jones county. The Newbern Journal of Commerce of yesterday gives all the particulars of the affair that were known up to Tuesday night. The occurrence took place on Monday afternoon.

M. L. Shepard was Colonel of the militia of Jones county, a County Commissioner and a Justice of the Peace. He was shot from a thicket across the river, while working in his mill, within two hundred yards of the most public part of the town of Trenton. Although this was done in open day and thus near the public part of the town, the perpetrators escaped before it was known what had been done.

The Times has the following in regard to the pursuit of the murderers:

"Information received late yesterday afternoon from Jones county is to the effect that two of the murderers have been captured, and afterwards escaped, but not till they had been identified by their captors.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Smith, Caswell Askew, John Stanley, Fred Taylor and — Gilbert, and other citizens all white men, together with a detachment of the late Col. Shepard's militia, started Monday night in pursuit of the murderers, and captured two white men, old residents of the county with faces blackened. Their names are Frank Nobles and John Ballard. While returning to Trenton, and when within a mile of the village the prisoners sprang from their guards, and though they were fired at they made their escape. This report is corroborated by white men, citizens of Jones county. As further details of the affair come to our notice we shall publish them."

We give only the facts of this affair and forbear speculation and comment for the present.

OPEN OUTRAGE.—A correspondent from Alamance county, writes us as follows:

"Governor Holden has (under the protection and guardianship of C. P. Warren,) established a branch of his League at the cross roads, near Lebanon, (a Baptist Church,) and on Wednesday the 4th day of this month they met to make a grand rally for the election on Thursday. During their meeting Mr. James Covington's daughter, in going to a neighbor's house, had occasion to pass there. When she came up to where they were, they had drawn a line across the road and had a guard placed at it, who halted her and told her that was the dead line, and whoever crossed it would die. This frightened her and she returned home and related the facts to her father. He then concluded that he would go with his daughter, and when they both arrived at the dead line, before mentioned, the sentinel told them that they could not pass, and if they attempted it, they would meet their death. They both went back home, and I understand that Mr. Covington is to try the law on them. I suppose the reason that they did not want any one to pass was that C. P. Warren and other scalawags were ashamed to be seen."

This is a pretty state of affairs, when neighbors cannot pass a public Church, on a public road, without being halted and their lives threatened by Governor Holden's leaguers. No wonder there are Ku Klux organizations: no wonder that people thus insulted and trampled on, should oppose violence with violence. People will not stand everything.

ON ACCOUNT of the great number of wonderful CURES of obstinate and inveterate cases of SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER DISEASE, KIDNEY AFFECTIONS, GENERAL BAD HEALTH, &c., made by the celebrated "KOSKOO," it has won the enviable reputation of being the best and most popular medicine ever discovered. It is related of the great engineer Roebling, that while he lay suffering intense agony from the fearful disease that at length took his life, he wrote in one afternoon, ten pages of manuscript, giving directions relative to the bridge and other matters. THE NOVEMBER ELECTION IN MISSISSIPPI.

Mr. Tarbel, a leading Radical of Mississippi, who had an interview with the President a few days ago at the residence of Secretary Fish, in regard to the interests of the party in Mississippi, declares that the administration is in entire accord with the ultra Radical party in the South, and hostile to the Dent movement in Mississippi. Representatives of the conservative Republican party in the South now here place no confidence in the statement of Tarbel as to the views of the President.—Washington dispatch, Aug. 12th.

Those who have talked with Gen. Grant don't know what he will probably do, for, in nine cases in ten, he doesn't know, and, even if he did, he couldn't be relied on for candor and sincerity. He promises and promises and promises, but he keeps no faith. No doubt he is at present opposing, under the influence of Boutwell, Creswell & Co., the movement in favor of the election of his brother in law, Judge Dent, to the Governorship of the State, after having done everything he could to encourage it, but we don't think that his opposition or his support is in that case a matter of much consequence. If the conservative Republicans of Mississippi have the nerve to nominate Dent without regard to the will of the President and his Cabinet, and if Dent has the nerve to accept the nomination, all will go right. Dent, standing upon the proper ground, such ground as Walker occupied in Virginia and Senter in Tennessee, can carry the Mississippi election by a vast majority.

Grant, according to one of our special dispatches, says in a private letter to Dent: "If the Conservatives are to win, I should prefer your election to that of any other person likely to be elected; but, as the matter now looks, it seems to me that the weight of my influence should be given to the other party." The weight of his influence! Well, well, we should like to know what is the exact avoirdupois or troy weight of his influence! Let him state his own estimate of it if he is not afraid of dying in a spasm of modesty. The power of the patronage of his administration was used in behalf of the ultra Radicals in Virginia and Tennessee, for nine-tenths of the patronage in those States belongs to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General both of whom electioneered in both States with all their might, and, moreover, the entire power of Grant's name was used as freely and as effectively in both as it possibly can be in Mississippi. And yet see what the result was in those two States—in one of them a majority against the administration and the ultra Radicals of 40,000, and in the other 63,000! One would think that Grant might as well be dumb in regard to the weight of his influence and the weight of the influence of his administration.—The weight of both influences is evidently a dead weight. The conservative Republicans of Mississippi can well afford to defy it, as we are assured they almost universally do.

If President Grant had the slightest appreciation of the duties and proprieties of his position, he would, when called on for an expression of his views and intentions as to the Mississippi election, have answered that it was a matter in relation to which he had and could have nothing to do, especially as both parties declared themselves in favor of the leading principles and measures of Republicanism. But let the feeble old soul have his own way. If his humiliations in Virginia and Tennessee are not enough, let him try the effects of still greater humiliations in Mississippi and Texas.—Courier Journal.

The negroes are asserting their independence under the proclamation of the Cespedes Government, and are organizing for active operations. They have taken the need at several points in their own defence.

Gen. Quesada is rapidly closing his lines, and believes that in fifteen or twenty days he will be in possession of Nuevitas.

Gen. Jordan is being reinforced by conscripted Cubans, and is incorporating them in his army. He says he will immediately commence offensive operations with assurance of success.

A letter from Judge Chase has recently been exhibited, in which he expressed great satisfaction at the result of the Virginia election, and hoped that a similar result would attend the elections in Tennessee, Mississippi and Texas. He intimated that the Republican party had served its purpose, and that a great Conservative party ought to be formed out of the moderate men of all existing parties.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.—Prof. Chas Dexter, of Shrewsbury, is dead.

In the Labor Convention resolutions were presented in favor of protective tariffs.

Miss Susan B. Anthony's case provokes hot discussion.

Mr. Walls, from the New York Typographical Union, read a despatch directing him to withdraw if Miss Anthony be admitted.

A proposition was made to refund to Walls his admission fee, and allow him to withdraw, was discussed to no purpose.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Further Cuban advices up to the 9th state that in an engagement near Remedios, Cubans defeated a Spanish force proceeding to Nuevitas to reinforce Lesca.

A force of Jordan's attacked near Trinidad, had succeeded in defeating the Spanish. One hundred and fifty Spaniards deserted, joined the Cubans and took part in the fight.

A Cuban Cauvoy was captured near Sagua La Grande. Another small party was captured near Puerto Principe. The last were immediately executed.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—In a recent interview with General Lee, regarding the proposed meeting of Generals of both armies at Gettysburg, next week, for identification of the battle field, leads to the belief that he will eventually attend; not that he wholly approves of the measure, but, rather than fling the meeting as a forgone conclusion, ... thinks his presence due to the men he commanded, as the meeting will be history, and because he desires to avoid the misconstruction which would be placed upon his refusal by the enemies of reconstruction.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, bad air, filthy habits, intemperate habits, unwholesome food, the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose tainted blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is no less efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulation of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific vitality they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is novice injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the agues districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

SERENADE.

I've told the flowers at her feet—
I've told the stars above her—
And still I venture to repeat
now ardently I love her!—
But she herself, my lady fair,
Hath never known and cannot care.

I've told my father all my grief—
Confided in my mother;
According to my own belief
I've told my elder brother.
And yet alas! I never dare
Speak frankly to my lady fair.

I've trusted in my bosom friend
(As well as my relations;)—
He knows precisely whither tend
My tender aspirations.
'Tis time, perhaps, that I declare
My passion to my lady fair

I've brought my light guitar to-night
My voice is well in training;
But, ere I smite the strings aright,
One obstacle's remaining.
I cannot improvise an air
To serenade my lady fair.

FIRE INSURANCE.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE LONDON LIVERPOOL AND GLOBE INS. CO. WHOSE CAPITAL AMOUNTS TO $17,000,000 IN GOLD.

I am now prepared to Insure all kinds of

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BUILDINGS, RAILROAD DEPOTS, SHOPS, ROLLING STOCK, BRIDGES AND TRACKS, FACTORIES FOUNDERIES,

MILLS AND MERCHANDISE,

IN ANY PART OF NORTH CAROLINA AT EXCEEDING LOW RATES.

I will when desired issue Permanent Policies which insures the property specified forever, unless the assured chooses to cancel his Policy in which event all the premium he has paid will be returned less five per centum.

The loss of a Court House or other Public Building at the present time would be a public calamity, whereas a trifling amount paid for a policy WILL SECURE A SUFFICIENT SUM TO REBUILD SHOULD THE PROPERTY BE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
SECRETARY.
